

Indiana's Do Not Call List should not be altered for any reason. Once exceptions are made than the door is open to others. Secondly, the point of the Do Not Call List is evident by its name. I do not want to be called which is why my family has signed up for this service. We have a mail system than works so companies and banks can continue to use this system and not the phones. Thank you.